

Abbreviated Minutes of Council Meeting 16th September 2016

- 1) Welcome.
The Chairman welcomed all to the meeting
- 2) Attendance
The Chairman and sixteen Members
- 3) Apologies
There were six apologies
- 4) Minutes of the Council Meeting on 10th June 2016
Were signed by the Chairman as a true record
The Minutes of the Executive Meeting on 15th July 2016 were noted.
- 5) Matters Arising
There is an attempt to get a representative from the Local Focus Group on HACC.
- 6) Heathrow Expansion
A number of our members are supporting the Gatwick option.
LAANC policy of not placing our noise on others was reconfirmed.
Heathrow are asking for a further 20,000 movements as an interim measure as the 480,000 cap is reached. This would break the current Planning cap.
A Government announcement on expansion is due shortly
- 7) CAA Airspace Consultation
The consultation document has not been issued.
The Night Flights Consultation is also awaited.
- 8) HAAC Report.
The number of night flights in June was questioned allegedly due to adverse weather and French ATC strike.
Passenger numbers now exceed 2007 levels and a drone policy is being worked on
A Taxi/mini cab park has been set up to get vehicles off the local roads.
- 9) UK Air Traffic Figures
CAA is not receiving stats from Airports and figures therefore incomplete
- 10) Any Other Business.
Members asked to be advised where the additional noise monitors are to be placed by Heathrow.
A report from HCNF to be added to agendas in the future.
