Privacy

What personal information do we collect?

In some instances we may ask you to register your name, email address and relevant personal details. We may also collect information from you if you complete any other forms on our site or if you contact us with comments or specific requests. This information will only be used for the intended purpose and to monitor site usage. If we wish to use it for any other purpose we will ask you first. If you complete any of our on line forms, we will not use the personal information you provide us with for marketing purposes without your consent.

Privacy Compliance.

We will treat any personal information by which you can be identified (i.e. name, address, email and the like) in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. This privacy only extends to the LAANC website and News Blog. Links within this site to external websites are outside of the control of LAANC and therefore not covered by this policy.

Disclosure

We will only use personal information you send us for the purposes for which you provide it. We will only hold your information for as long as necessary for those purposes and will not pass it on to any other parties. All Officers, delegated members and consultants who may have access to your personal information are obliged to respect the confidentiality of such information.
